

Staples & the U.S. Small Business Administration Host Special Town Forum in Cleveland

“Small Business Success: Igniting Innovation-Revitalizing Manufacturing through Innovation”

Join top business, government and community leaders to explore new ways to innovate your company. This roundtable discussion will address issues affecting small business in the Cleveland market and focus on how to spark creative business solutions in a rapidly changing environment.

Panelists:

Tom Stemberg, Chairman and Founder of Staples, Inc.
Melanie Sabelhaus, SBA Deputy Administrator
Dr. Steven Gage, President, Cleveland Advanced Manufacturing Project
Jean Carter Ryan, Deputy Director, Economic Development for the State of Ohio
Susanna Ross, Co-Founder, Ink Big Corporation

Moderator:

Debbie Van Tassel, Business Editor, Plain Dealer

Date: June 15, 2004

Time: 11:30 a.m. – 1 p.m.

Location: Staples, 2150 West 117th Street Cleveland, OH

Cost: Free to the public

###

RSVPs:

1-888-302-0000

by June 3

Media Contact:

Cecelia Taylor, SBA

202-401-7363

Cecelia.taylor@sba.gov

Julie Mittelman, Staples

508-253-8580

julie.mittelman@staples.com